Some of Honorable Samuel Renry's Peculiar Legislation. To the Editor of the Cambria Freeman:

I have a great regard for the gentleman whose name heads this letter, not only because he is a RANKER, and is, consequently, the sympathizing friend of the people-especially those who have not been blessed with a superabundance of that which phiosophers have termed "the root of all evil" —and one who, under not all circumstances, but particular circumstances, is ready and willing to extend the hand of charity to those in need, and who, were it not for his exceeding modesty, and which, I have no doubt, is all that prevents him from so do-ing, might on all occasions exclaim in the language of the poet:

"I will take your friendship up at use.

And fear not that your profit shall be small;

Your interest shall exceed your principal."

rule to that extent that the people do not admit, and admitting proclaim to the world, that he is all charity, purity and wisdom, and acknowledge the fact that although Cambria county has enjoyed the reputation of having been the birth-place and the home of as great men as ever figured in the State, yet, comparatively speaking, its citizens have been groping in darkness;—that, although it could justly boast of men of intellect, wisdom and ability second to none in the State, yet it remained for an adjoining county to send us a Cæsar who possessed there qualities to that extent that were the foremost men of other days still living they

"Walk under his huge legs and peep about To find themselves dishonorable graves." And I have no doubt but that it was a and I have no donet but that it was a most happy thing for the people of this county that they understood and recognized the "eternal fitness of things," and chose this great man as their legislative representative during the past two years, because I have heard it said by those who are most intimate with him, and who enjoy the privilege of being his confidential friends, that he has with him, and who enjoy the privilege of being his confidential friends, that he has done so much for the relief of the people during his legislative career.

Far be it from me to presume to doubt the wisdom of aught this great man has done, or question the motives which influenced him, yet I must confess that I cannot understand wherein the people are to be benefitted by ome of his laws. However, I suppose they were drafted in the great elevation and superiority of Hon. Sainuel Henry's wisdom, and are therefore above the comprehension of the common herd-are as much above the understanding of ordinary mortals as Caligula's laws, when suspended on-the pillars, were above the legibility of his subjects-and, if they were explained, would be understood and appreciated.

Therefore, in that spirit of humility becoming one of the commonality, I would ask effitted by some of his laws; and first would suggest an explanation of an act regulating the practice of medicine in Cambria county, passed the 5th day of April, 1873. This act provides that any physician residing out of the county who shall attempt to practice medicine or surgery, or shall prescribe for any sick person, or shall perform any surgical operation, "in violation of this act, shall done up in a quart flask, and tenders a be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, drink to every voter he meets on the pubnot less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, one-half of which fine shall go to the informer." The provisions referred to are "that he (the physician) -If all our readers had occasion to visit out a license for one year, for which he shall pay a fee of two hundred dollars." more superb, more varied, or more desira- or get hart, he could not, no matter in what ccution for misdemeanor, the penalty of which is a fine of not less that $100. To illustrate this law more clearly: Sup-

Now, under this law, the physician residing in the town named could not prescribe for this person nuless be either assumed the risk of a prosecution and heavy fine or went all the way to Ebensburg and naid $200 for a physician's license. This is one of the many acts passed by Mr. Henry, and I must confess that I cannot, for the life of me, see what benefit the people can derive from it. True, some quack who could get nothing to do under other circumstances might be employed sometimes. But, under all the circumstances, is it not oppressive and a great injustice to the people to deprive them of the right to call in any physiian they chose, especially when the immediate presence of a physician may be necessary to the preservation of a human life? If it is convenient for this mighty statesman to the Treasurer, so that the farmer would have time to realize something from his crops wherewith to pay his share of the taxation of the county. This is what Henry Scanlan proposes to do. The law, as it row stands, favors the rich and bears hard upon the poor. Let the people answer at the polls by electing a representative whose every sympathy is with the farmer and laborer, and whose legislation will not favor large corporations and make the rich richer while it makes the poor poorer.

OBITUARY.-Mr. William Cailan, a well known and much esteemed citizen of this county died of consumption, at his residence at Cresson, after a protracted illness, at 8 o'clock on Monday morning last, and was interred in the Catholic cemetery at Sum-mitville on Wednesday morning following. Mr. Callan was an honest, true-hearted gentleman, kind and affectionate in his disposition and steadfast, faithful and highly hon orable in both word and deed, and having well merited he fully enjoyed the confidence and respect of all with whom he held social or business intercourse. From Monday's is-sue of the Johnstown Tribune we extract the following sketch of his life, written by one who knew him long, intimately and well: "The deceased was born in Buther, Butler county, this State, about the year 1828, and at the time of his death was verging on forty-nine years of age. About thirty-six years ago he re-"I will take your friendship up at use,

And fear not that your profit shall be small;
Your interest shall exceed your principal."
But of course Samuel Henry is composed of modesty and self-denial to that extent that he would much rather decry his own goodness of heart and superior greatness than admit that he is such a man.
But, thank heaven, ingratitude does not rule to that extent that the people do not pleting this work he was married to Miss Ellen Feltz, who bore him three children, all of whom are yet living. After the completion of his contract he returned to Johnstown, and carried on carpenter work for several years. About the year 1864 he removed to Cresson, and purchasing three seres of ground adjoining the Mountain House property, he erected the well known 'Callan House,' where he has resided ever since.

> "Mr. Callan did not relinquish his labors as a mechanic, however, but when the letting for our County Jail was made he was the successful bidder, and to-day it stands as a monument to his skill and energy as a contractor and builder. The municipal building in this city, known as the Market House, is also a lasting monument to his ability as a mechanic. After securing the contract for that building, several thousand dollars less than any of his competitors, consumption marked himjas a victim, but even though scarcely able to leave his bed, he attended to all the details of its erection.
> "It is scarcely necessary to speak of his skill sincerity from those who came in contact with him; and although apparently a cynic in his ways and deportment, he possessed a heart that beat as warm and true as any that was ever implanted in mortal breast.

RIGHT ON THE RECORD .- Now and then rumor reaches the public ear that some body, generally a resident of the rural districts, has been "taken in and done for" on a sewing machine, or some other labor-saving inv a ion. In a few instances these di onest dodges have been ventilated through the newspapers, one or two cases having recently been reported, wherein a sewing machine agent is said to have been granted the privilege of leaving machines at certain houses until he would call for them, receiving in return what purported to be an ac knowledgment of such fact, duly signed by the proprietors of such houses, but what afterward proved to be exemption notes, payable within a specified time. We say stories of this kind have been told time and again, but whether true or false it is not our purpose now to inquire. We merely wish say that, if true, Mr. M. L. Brown, of this place, agent for the renowned and unsur passable Singer Sewing Machine, is not the man who did the swindling. He has a machine that can and does recommend itself, and he has come among us to make an honest living in an honest way, and would not resort to any disreputable dadges if a for-tune could be made in the operation. We know these statements to be facts, and while uthinity say, after an expe of several years in our own family, that the Singer machine is without a superior, we can just as emphatically declare that Mr. Brown is above and beyond a mean or mercenary act of any kind. He believes, as we believe, that no family should do without a sewing machine, and thus believing he offers, on the most liberal terms, a machine that never has and never will fail to give entire satisfaction in every instance, and if the parties whom he solicits do not see fit to purchase that is the end of the transaction. He deals fairly and squarely, and deserves to be dealt with in like manner. Let him be encouraged

AN ALTOONA LADY SEERS HER DAUGH! TER AND FINDS HER-A Dreadful Finding. -The Pittsburgh Evening Telegraph, of Saturday, narrates the following stekening affliction, came to this city in search of her daughter. She was conducted to the Mayor's office and there stated that she lived in Altoona. Some two or three weeks ago her daughter, a young girl of about eighteen years, left home with the deliberate inten-tion, it would appear, of entering upon a life of disgrace. The mother found, at length, that the girl had come to Pittsburgh, and came here to find her, as stated. The police took the matter in hand, and yesterday afternoon found that the girl was stopping at a house of ill repute on the hill, and had been there almost ever since she left home. The mother procured a carriage and, accompanied by detective Wilmot, proceeded to the place to seek an interview with the daughter. She found her child, but had no interview with her. The girl The broken hearted mother decided at once to take her daughter home, in the desperate hope of affecting a reformation.

Help was summoned, and, as if she were a dead body, that young girl was carried to the carriage, and, with her mother weeping two postage stamps. beside her, was driven to the depot. There she was carried a dead, shameful weight, from the carriage to the sleeping car, and the sorrowful journey homeward com-
